THE COLLECTIONS FROM SMACK OF JELLYFISH

THE ANIMAL KINGDOM

A group of ferrets is called a business. After reading this one day, I decided to illustrate animals for each letter of the alphabet, and collective nouns for each of those animals.

Dark Humor

here are some unexpected cards for your friends and enemies.

DH1

burn in hell.

The orange, yellow and red flames cavort translucently on a black background. The inside of the card is blank to fill with your own reasons for telling the recipient to burn in hell.

DH2

eat poo.

Well, that pretty much says it all. For the 3rd grade sense of humor in all of us.

DH3

I hope you get hit by a truck.

Not from the highest spiritual plane, but maybe you know someone who would get a kick out of this.

With a Flourish

if it's worth saying, say it with embellishment

F1

Oops.

We all make mistakes. Acknowledge it and move on.

F2

He doesn't deserve you.

Broken hearts will heal with the help of a friend.

F3

You'll be sorry.

Let someone know what a big mistake they're making—is your best friend moving away? Perhaps an ill-advised wedding? Say it with a flourish.

Miss you...

Miss You Dandelion Cards

Three different dandelion cards to show someone the melancholy in your soul. I love dandelions, and am always a little sad to see them go to seed. I recommend buying all three and sending them whenever you think of that person who is missing.
